

SOCIETY.

Social Circle.

Mrs. J. B. Ellison was hostess of the Social Circle on Wednesday afternoon, May 2. Three contests were given, all of which excited some keen and interesting competition. In the first the prize, a china salt and pepper, was won by Mrs. W. F. Eisele; in the second, Mrs. Ed. Tritsch took first honor, and received a pretty mayonnaise set; Mrs. James Rochester won the third, in which the prize was a half-dozen butter pads. Mrs. Will Hols was awarded the consolation prize, a mush and milk or hasty pudding set. Dainty refreshments were served after the contests. Mrs. Harry Kirker, Miss May Kirker, and Mrs. J. J. Snider were guests at the club for the afternoon.

"Onion Party."

Miss Blanche Stroup gave an "onion party," last Thursday evening, at which the following were guests, Misses Sophia and Mary Smith, Virginia Weldy, Lou Parker, Effie McGuire, and Mabel Miller, and Messrs. Tod Stedem, John Allen, and Henry Ucker. Bread and butter and new onions constituted the principal item of the menu.

Ohlinger-Shaw.

On Saturday evening, at the Methodist Parsonage, Miss Belle Shaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Shaw, and Mr. Ed. Ohlinger, of Cleveland, were quietly united in marriage. Rev. White officiating. The couple left on the following evening for their future home in Cleveland. Mr. Ohlinger is employed as brakeman in the Lake Shore yard at that city. He is a brother of Mr. John Ohlinger, of Logan. The friends of the couple in Logan, to whom the wedding was somewhat of a surprise, unite in their congratulations.

At Dinner.

Mrs. Jane Kuhn entertained at dinner, Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Highley, of Decatur, Illinois, Mrs. John Kuhn, of Lancaster, and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Highley.

A Delightful Evening.

The former neighbors and friends of Mrs. Littlejohn, on Hunter St., gave her a most complete surprise on last Wednesday evening by gathering at her home. Mrs. Littlejohn is a lady held in most high esteem by all her former neighbors that surrounded her where she lived in the James property for over four years. Those present were: Mesdames Ed. Rochester and children, Bert Engle and son, Norwood, Will Heft and children, Henry James and children, C. E. Brehm and children, Reddick, Fred Koppe and children, George Krisbaum, and Gus Heine, and Misses Ruth and Nancy Easterling.

The evening was spent in social conversation until about 9 o'clock, when Miss Stella assisted by Mesdames Rochester, Krisbaum, and Heine, served an elegant two course supper after which the remainder of the evening was spent in vocal and instrumental music and at a late hour the guests departed wishing that they might be permitted to spend many more such evenings at Mrs. Littlejohn's home.

Golden Wedding.

On Tuesday, May 8, the children and grand-children of Mr. and Mrs. John Fox, of Marion Township, gathered in force at the old home near Mount Tabor, where the couple have lived over sixty years, to celebrate their Golden Wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Fox were married at that place May 8, 1858, and have lived there since. Last Tuesday was about such a day as that of the original wedding, and all living who were guests on that occasion were present at this, to shake hands and congratulate the aged couple. Joe Weiland, of New Lexington, and Mrs. John Stedem, of Logan, the only living brother and sister of Mrs. Fox, were there; and Uncle Jacob Fox, of the West End, the only surviving brother of John Fox. Eight children and twenty-nine grand-children attended, including George, Jacob, Paul, Lawrence and Will Fox, and their families, all of Logan; Mrs. Emma Wilson and Mrs. Barbara Beaver and families, of New Lexington; and a numerous gathering of other friends. A sumptuous old-time dinner was spread, to which all the guests did substantial justice, and the day was passed in mutual and sincere congratulation and reminiscence of the years that have been spent in that early abiding place of the family. Mr. and Mrs. Fox are, respectively, seventy-four and seventy-six years of age.

A Charming Card Party.

Mrs. Beem and Miss White entertained in a most delightful manner with cards on Tuesday last. There were ten tables and euchre was the game of the evening. The prizes were exceptionally handsome. Mrs. Adam Lutz won the head prize; Mrs. Phil Rochester the second, and Mrs. Donovan the third. After the game a delicious supper was served. Miss Lizzie Rempel and Miss Collins assisted the hostess in seeing that the guests were bountifully served.

Ladies' Pedro Club.

Mrs. John Monahan entertained the Ladies' Pedro Club, Monday evening. It was the first meeting of the club for some time, and the play was enthusiastic, three of the contestants having to cut for the prize of which Mrs. A. K. Smith was the final winner. A two-course luncheon was served.

Pedro Party.

Mrs. Ed. Beck was hostess of the Un-Named Pedro Club, last Thursday evening. Mrs. Henry Doebele, and Mr. C. F. Brandt and wife were visitors. An elegant supper was served, after cards, by Mrs. Beck, assisted by Miss Florence Doebele. Four tables of Pedro were played, the prize-winners being Mrs. Ed. Wallman and Mr. L. O. Bort.

Entertains With Euchre.

Mrs. Emma Hanson, of Chicago, was the guest of honor at a euchre given Monday evening, by Mrs. J. P. Rochester. Mrs. Hanson and Mrs. Helen Bowen were prize-winners at cards, receiving, respectively, a china bon-bon dish, and a pretty gift vase, as prizes. Ice cream, cake and strawberries were served.

Tucker-Achauer.

On Wednesday of this week took place the quiet marriage of Mr. Gerald Tucker to Miss Bertha Achauer, both prominent young people of Haydenville. The ceremony was performed in Logan by Mayor Dollison.

Euterpean Club.

Mrs. F. M. McKay and Mrs. H. R. Harrington jointly entertained the Euterpean Club and a number of guests at the Harrington home, Tuesday evening. It was the closing meeting of the season, and a special program of excellent music was rendered. Light refreshments were served after the conclusion of the program. Mrs. Frank Rochester, of Columbus, and Mrs. Henry Woodworth, of Haydenville, were visitors.

The teachers of Hocking County are requested to meet at the High School Building in Logan on May 18, at 1 o'clock p. m., for a social and business session. Dr. Bachman, of Athens, will address the meeting, together with a home program of papers and music.

Man Spends One-third Of His Life in Bed

He does himself a wrong if he don't look after his bodily comfort, by using the Best Mattress he can find. An Elastic Felt Mattress has been proven the best because (if made right) it is elastic, will not mat and is non-absorbent and therefore sanitary.

This week we have in our window a sample that shows how the best ones are made, of layers of white, long fibre, felted cotton. We guarantee this mattress at $12.00 to be equal to any mattress on the market that sells for $15.00. We also have them at $10.50, $8.50, $7.00 and $6.

While looking after your personal comforts don't forget the little "Tot." We have Baby's Equipage waiting for him and at prices to suit all purses. Nice comfortable carts that fold, with reclining backs, and plenty of room for pillows. All are fitted with the newest patterns in parasols. We have them from $2.25 to $20.00.

We also have the Fulton Folding Cart which can be folded into a space no larger than a suit case. As they are ball bearing they are the lightest running cart on the market. It is the nicest thing ever built for $7.50. See them in our window.
